GEORGIA FRONTIERE

Chairman/Owner

Georgia Frontiere is in her 21st season as Chairman and Owner of one of the National Football League's most historic franchises, having assumed leadership of the Rams in 1979. During her tenure, the Rams have reached the Super Bowl once and appeared in the NFC playoffs seven times.

Georgia's most important decision was made in 1995, when she moved the Rams to St. Louis, her hometown and one of America's most outstanding sports communities. The Rams' move represents the most successful relocation in NFL history. St. Louis and the Rams became one, the Rams supporting the community in countless charitable endeavors and the community supporting its team with sellout crowds in the beautiful Trans World Dome.

The Rams enter the 1999 season, their fifth in St. Louis, poised to contend in the NFC West after concluding one of the most productive off-seasons in team history. During this period, the Rams signed free agent quarterback Trent Green from Washington and guard Adam Timmerman from Green Bay, acquired Pro Bowl running back Marshall Faulk in a trade with Indianapolis and drafted Torry Holt, an outstanding wide receiver, in the first round of the draft. The Rams also signed hard-hitting safety Devin Bush from Atlanta and several other free agents.

Georgia is dedicated to bringing a winning team to St. Louis and the team's bold off-season moves have underscored that commitment.

In addition to her role with the team, Georgia is recognized for her international philanthropy and is a leading contributor to the St. Louis community, assisting a wide variety of groups with an emphasis on education, the arts and youth. In 1997, she formed the St. Louis Rams Foundation to benefit area charities. With Georgia at the helm, the Foundation has donated nearly a half-million dollars to local charities making a difference in the St. Louis region.

Her local civic and charitable involvement is extensive. She is a member of the Board of Directors of the Laumeier Sculpture Park in St. Louis County, Lindenwood College, the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, the St. Louis Zoo, and the St. Louis Variety Club. Georgia regularly chairs benefits to assist organizations in meeting their goals.

For her St. Louis civic and charitable accomplishments, the St. Louis Ambassadors named Georgia "Sportsperson of the Year" in 1997.

As a board member of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, she's worked to build alliances between sports and cultural arts in St. Louis. During 1998, she teamed with the Symphony to perform "An Evening With Lerner & Loewe," and annually hosts the St. Louis Symphony Children's Choir at a Rams home game.

Georgia has become a major presence in the activities of the St. Louis Variety Club serving on the Executive Committee and contributing her time and talents, and those of the St. Louis Rams Cheerleaders, to the annual telethon. She also plays a lead role with the Club's Bikes for Kids program, which annually provides bikes for low-income children. Each year she hosts the group of 100 children at a Rams home game and at the Rams Park Training Facility.

Through Georgia, the Rams are deeply involved with the United Way of Greater St. Louis, contributing resources and time to assist the organization's efforts. In 1997, Georgia appeared in a United Way public service announcement and during 1998 she orchestrated the 25th anniversary of the NFL/United Way partnership with a series of local activities. She is a member of the Alexis de Tocqueville Society for her corporate and personal contributions to United Way.

In 1992, Georgia initiated a contest to award a $5,000 college scholarship to a student who creates the winning illustration for the cover of the Rams' media guide. Thousands of St. Louis-area youngsters have participated in the contest. A gallery exhibit of entries, co-sponsored by Rams Foundation partner, the Center for Contemporary Arts, enhances this year's competition.

A native St. Louisan, Georgia has become actively involved with her alma mater, Hamilton Elementary School. Regular visits and the establishment of an annual scholarship have cemented her bond with the school. In 1997, the school's library was rededicated in her name.

In 1996, Grand Center tapped her to chair their annual gala featuring Gregory Peck, and she joined Senator Thomas Eagleton to co-chair the American Red Cross St. Louis Bi-State Chapter's annual golf tournament. In 1998, she was the honorary chair of the Mental Health Association's Annual Gala. This year, she joined Christopher Reeve as the honorary chair of "Gateway to a Cure," which raised money to help find a cure for spinal cord injuries.

Georgia holds a Doctor of Philanthropy degree from Pepperdine University in Malibu, California, and is on the Board of Governors of Chapman University in Orange, California. She sits on the Board of Directors of the American Air Museum in Great Britain and is a recipient of the Ellis Island Medal of Honor, which cited her for "community involvement and for having greatly contributed to our national identity while preserving the distinct values of her ancestors."

Georgia worked tirelessly to help make the American Air Museum in Britain a reality and, as American co-chairman with Charlton Heston, was instrumental in raising funds for this endeavor through performances in Washington, D.C., Los Angeles and Dallas. In 1997, she joined Queen Elizabeth, Prince Philip and Prince Andrew for the dedication, and was recognized for her outstanding contributions with a gallery at the Museum named in her honor.

She has also served on the Board of Directors of St. Louis University, the Los Angeles Boys and Girls Club and is a benefactor of the St. Jude Children's Research Center in Memphis.

Her dedication to the advancement of youth was underscored by a significant donation to the Fulfillment Fund, an organization which sponsors more than 2,000 high school students who are selected for having college potential but whose educational opportunities are limited.

Georgia is also a board member of the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America and a national board member of the American Foundation for AIDS Research. She occupies a similar position with the St. John's Ambulance Brigade of Great Britain, which provides ambulance and emergency services throughout the United Kingdom and is also a major contributor to St. John's Opthalmic Hospital in Jerusalem.

She is a member of the Los Angeles Music Center Opera board, the Golden Horseshoe of the New York Metropolitan Opera and is on the boards of New York's Collegiate Chorale and the William Hall Chorale. She is also on the NFL Alumni Board of Governors.

Georgia is the mother of two children, son Dale Carroll Rosenbloom, who is married to the former Kathleen Melville, and daughter Lucia Pamela Rodriguez, who is married to Lupe Rodriguez. Georgia has six grandchildren.

STAN KROENKE

Vice Chairman/Owner

Kroenke works with Owner and Chairman Georgia Frontiere and Rams President John Shaw on many important franchise matters. A native Missourian, Stan's emergence as an owner of the Rams was critical in the effort to return professional football to St. Louis in 1995.

Although active in all facets of the organization, Stan initially concentrated efforts on creation of Rams Park, the NFL's premier team headquarters and training facility. Kroenke oversaw construction of the state-of-the-art complex west of the Lambert Field airport. Completed in June, 1996, Rams Park, sitting on twenty acres in St. Louis County, includes 90,000 square feet of administrative and football training space, three outdoor natural grass fields, and an 80-yard indoor artificial surface field.

Kroenke is chairman and owner of The Kroenke Group, a private real estate investment and development company with offices throughout the United States and headquarters in Columbia, Missouri. During the past two decades, Kroenke has built a reputation as one of the nation's leading developers of shopping centers and apartment buildings. This year, Kroenke was nominated for the Ernst & Young St. Louis Region Entrepreneur of the Year Award.

Stan is a member of the Board of Directors of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. He has other business interests that include director positions with Community Investment Partnership I and II of St. Louis, and the Boone County National Bank in Columbia.

Kroenke serves as a trustee of the College of the Ozarks and on the Strategic Development board of the University of Missouri School of Business. He is a trustee of the Missouri Basketball Hall of Fame and a member of the board of the Central Bancompany in Jefferson City. Stan also has active membership in St. Louis's Civic Progress, which provides support and leadership for various community improvements that address economic development, education, and quality of life.

Kroenke has undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Missouri and is an active supporter of Mizzou athletic programs, including the Dan Devine Club, named for the former Tigers football coach.

E. Stanley Kroenke was born in Cole Camp, Missouri, and grew up in Mora, Missouri. Stan and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Josh.

JOHN SHAW
President
20th Season with Rams

John Shaw's importance to the Rams and his vision and influence in the National Football League have been dramatically underscored in the 1990s, a decade in which Shaw has been a predominant figure in events critical to the Rams and to the NFL.

Most recently Shaw orchestrated the important trade that brought Pro Bowl running back Marshall Faulk to the Rams for second- and fifth-round draft choices from the Indianapolis Colts two days before the 1999 NFL draft.

Shaw also was a principal figure as the Rams negotiated the overwhelmingly successful return of professional football to St. Louis, which culminated in 1995. During this period Shaw maintained his role as an active participant in shaping the future of the NFL as a member of the NFL Management Council Executive Committee. Shaw was a principal contributor to the enactment of a Collective Bargaining Agreement with the NFL Players' Association that brought labor peace to the NFL in 1993.

Shaw, who joined the Rams in 1980, oversees all aspects of the Rams' operation as Chairman and Owner Georgia Frontiere's primary advisor on financial, business, and legal matters.

John is a native of New York who moved to San Diego as a youngster, attended high school there, and graduated from the University of San Diego with a bachelor's degree in accounting. John continued his education at New York University School of Law, from which he received a Juris Doctor Degree, and practiced law in California prior to joining the accounting firm of Arthur Andersen & Co.

Shaw is a member of the board of the Greater St. Louis United Way. He also is a member of the Council of Trustees of LEARN, an educational program. John, is married (Lori) and has a daughter, Alexandra.

JAY A. ZYGMUNT
Executive Vice President
18th Season with Rams

Zygmunt works closely with Rams President John Shaw in overseeing Rams operations, especially player contracts and the NFL salary cap.

Zygmunt's expertise and knowledge of the myriad aspects of the salary cap are widely recognized. Jay also is the Rams' liaison to the NFL Management Council and the NFL Players' Association in player relations and other collective bargaining matters. As the Rams' principal negotiator in player contracts, Zygmunt has been a major presence in the signing of 18 Rams first-round draft choices and many veteran free agents.

Zygmunt joined the Rams in 1982 as General Counsel. A native of Chicago, Zygmunt graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1973 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and is a member of the Sorin Society.

Jay earned his Juris Doctor degree from Northwestern University School of Law, where he is a member of the Whigmore Society. Zygmunt is both a Certified Public Accountant and a member of the Illinois bar.

Zygmunt is a member of the American Bar Association's Forum Committee on the Entertainment and Sports Industries and the Sports Lawyers Association. He resides in St. Louis.

BOB WALLACE
Senior Vice President/ Administration, General Counsel
19th NFL Season
Fifth with Rams

An NFL veteran, Wallace oversees the day-to-day business operation of the Rams, including departmental supervision, budgets, and planning.

Bob, who lettered in football as a running back at Yale University, first associated with the NFL and with professional football in St. Louis as a teenage training camp assistant with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1971. He later served the Cardinals as the Counsel to and chief contract negotiator for the team while representing the St. Louis law firm of Guilfoil, Petzall and Shoemake from 1981-91.

Wallace was Assistant to the President, General Counsel, and chief contract negotiator for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1991-94 and returned to St. Louis when the Rams moved here in 1995.

A native of New York City, Wallace was a legal intern on former NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle's staff while in college. Bob earned his law degree from Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., after graduation from Yale.

Wallace serves on a number of boards, including the Urban League of Greater St. Louis; Payback, Inc.; Operation Excel, Inc.; Repertory Theater of St. Louis; The Sports Lawyers' Association, and the St. Louis Sports Commission. Wallace is a member of the Sports and Entertainment Division of the American Bar Association. He also has taught classes on sports law at St. Louis University School of Law and received a certificate of recognition for law and education projects from the St. Louis Public Schools.

Bob and his wife Julie, a native of Murphysboro, Illinois, have two sons, Grant and Eric, and live in St. Louis.

DICK VERMEIL
President/Head Coach
13th NFL Season
Seventh with Rams

The parallels are striking. Dick Vermeil prepared for his third season as Rams' head coach in the same aggressive manner as when he entered his third season with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1978. The Eagles were 4-10 and 5-9 in Vermeil's first two seasons and 9-7 and in the playoffs in his third. The Rams were 5-11 and 4-12 in Vermeil's first two seasons but ready to take a big step in 1999.

The ability to rebuild losing teams was paramount when Georgia Frontiere appointed Vermeil the 19th head coach of the Rams Jan. 22, 1997, culminating a search that had started many years before.

Vermeil had been out of coaching since 1982 but contacted by NFL teams virtually every year thereafter. Whenever the Rams were seeking a head coach they always approached Vermeil, a master at revitalization.

Vermeil is the rarest of coaches. He has been a Coach of the Year on four levels, high school, junior college, national collegiate Division I, and NFL. He also was the first fulltime special teams coach in NFL history, with the Rams under head coach George Allen in 1969.

Vermeil has been a winner through hard work and the ability to get others to work hard since the day in 1960 the 23-year-old graduate of San Jose State became head coach at Hillsdale High in the San Francisco suburb of San Mateo, California. In his second season, Vermeil's team fashioned a 9-0 record.

After one year as assistant coach at San Mateo College in 1963, Vermeil became head coach at Napa Junior College in the wine country near his birthplace in the Northern California community of Calistoga. Vermeil turned the perennially losing Napa program into an immediate winner with a 7-2 record in his first season.

Vermeil was at Stanford University under head coach John Ralston from 1965-68 and served on a staff that included such future NFL head coaches as Ralston, Bill

Walsh, Mike White, Jim Mora, and Rod Rust.

Vermeil came to the NFL with the Rams in 1969, then joined Tommy Prothro's UCLA staff in 1970. Dick returned to the Rams with Prothro in 1971 and coached quarterbacks and special teams.

Vermeil's next head coaching position was that which brought him national recognition for the first time. He took over the UCLA program in 1974 and, in his second season, led the Bruins to a 9-2-1 record, their first Pacific 8 Conference championship, and their first Rose Bowl appearance in 10 seasons. The Bruins capped the season with a dramatic upset of No. 1-ranked Ohio State in the Rose Bowl.

Vermeil then came to the NFL for the third time, facing his greatest challenge with the long-suffering Philadelphia Eagles. After 4-10 and 5-9 records his first two seasons, Vermeil in 1978 drove the Eagles to a 9-7 finish, their first winning season since 1966, and to a spot in the playoffs for the first time since 1960. The Eagles accomplished this feat despite not having No. 1 or No. 2 draft choices the previous five years. Vermeil was named NFC Coach of the Year.

The Eagles were 11-5 the following season, their most successful in 20 years. Vermeil was NFL Coach of the Year.

The Eagles posted a best-ever 12-4 record in 1980, won the NFC championship, and earned a berth in Super Bowl XV against the Oakland Raiders.

The 1980 season underscored the Vermeil mantra of hard work. Example: the 1980 Eagles outscored opponents 130-44 in the fourth quarter and 226-95 in the second half. Example: In an eerie twist to the NFL's playoff tie-breaker system, the Eagles needed only to lose by 24 points or less in the final regular-season game at Dallas to clinch the division title. Dallas took a 21-0 lead at halftime and was ahead 35-10 in the fourth quarter. On the brink of falling to a wild card berth in the playoffs, the Eagles rallied for 17 points in the final 10 minutes to clinch their first championship in 20 years.

Vermeil retired from coaching two years later and was a television analyst on NFL and college games for CBS and ABC. His career as a television analyst provided Vermeil a rare distinction: he is the only man to coach a team in the Rose Bowl and to broadcast a Rose Bowl.

Vermeil was a four-sport star at Calistoga High. Dick also was employed in the auto repair garage operated by his father, Louis Vermeil. Dick continued to learn the skills and work ethic of his father as a student at Napa Junior College and at San Jose State, where he was a quarterback on the football team and took a master's degree in physical education in 1959.

Vermeil and his wife of 42 years, the former Carolyn Drake, have two sons, a daughter, and 10 grandchildren. Dick and Carol reside in Chesterfield, Mo.

STUDENT WINS MEDIA GUIDE ART CONTEST

The cover illustration for the Rams' 1999 media guide was created by Jason Whitley, 18, a senior at Belleville East High School in Fairview Heights, Il. White began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of California in 1958, moved to Stanford as offensive coordinator in 1964, and was joined by Vermeil on head coach John Ralston's staff a year later.

UNIFORM ADJUSTMENT

In 1958, Rams owner Dan Reeves switched the team's uniforms from blue and gold to blue and white, because the color gold did not translate well on television, predominantly black and white at the time. Reeves explored using different shades of gold that would look good on television. "Buttercup yellow" was the only shade that would work, but Reeves would not allow his team to wear "buttercup yellow." The Rams played in blue and white until owner Carroll Rosenbloom switched the uniforms back to the original blue and gold in 1973.

Game 1 — New Orleans Saints 24, RAMS 17

Trans World Dome | September 6, 1998 | Indoors, 72 degrees

New Orleans scored all its points in the first half and held on to beat the Rams. Rams WR Isaac Bruce posted 10 receptions for 131 yards, but the Rams lost their first season opener in five years and their first home opener in seven years. New Orleans got on the board early as DE Joe Johnson picked up RB Jerald Moore's fumble on the five yard line and ran into the endzone to give the Saints a 7-0 lead with 12:00 to go in the first quarter. The Saints then pulled a trick play out of their playbook to increase the lead to 14-0 as RB Lamar Smith threw a 20-yard pass to WR Andre Hastings with 4:13 to play in the first quarter. K Doug Brien increased the lead to 17-0 with 11:38 to go in the first half with a 36-yard field goal. QB Billy Joe Hobert finished the Saints scoring with a 35 yard pass to L. Smith, who avoided several Rams defenders to give New Orleans a 24-0 lead with 4:45 to play in the second quarter. Moore put St. Louis on the board with less than a minute to play in the half, scampering one yard and then falling on his own fumble in the endzone to cut the lead to 24-7. Rams QB Tony Banks hit WR Eddie Kennison for a 15-yard strike with 7:14 left to play in the third quarter, cutting the New Orleans lead to 24-14. K Jeff Wilkins finished the Rams scoring with a 34-yard field goal with 1:26 left to go in the game. The Rams had a final chance to tie the score, but Banks was sacked on the last play of the game.

WHEN WAS A TIE NOT A TIE?

Since the inception of the National Football League in 1920, games that were tied after the fourth quarter ended in ties. In addition, tied games were not figured into a team's overall winning percentage. For example, in 1960 the St. Louis Cardinals posted a 6-5-1 record. However, their winning percentage was based on 11 games, not 12.

On May 24, 1972, the NFL changed the method of determining won-loss percentage. Tied games, previously not counted in standings, were made equal to a half game won and a half game lost.

In 1974, the NFL adopted its current method of sudden-death overtime, where the first team that scores, wins. If the score is tied after the 15-minute extra period, the game ends in a tie.

The Rams were involved in the genesis of what became sudden-death overtime. In a 1955 preseason game at Portland, Ore., the Rams beat the N.Y. Giants,23-17 in overtime.

The Rams have played only one game that ended in a tie since the overtime rule has been in effect. The Rams played the Minnesota Vikings to a 10-10 tie September 19, 1976, in Minneapolis. The Rams have played 354 games without a tie.

Each year, the Rams honor four players with special awards. The players and coaches combine to vote on two of the awards, the Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award and the Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award, while the players vote on the Carl Ekern Spirit of the Game Award and the Ed Block Courage Award. A description of each award:

Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award
Given to the team's Most Valuable Player. The award was established in 1969 in honor of the former owner of the Rams, Dan Reeves, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967. Reeves owned the Rams from 1941-71 and claimed World Championships in 1945 and 1951. He was the first to integrate football in the modern era with the signing of Woody Strode and Kenny Washington in 1946.

Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award
Given to the team's Rookie of the Year. The award was established following the unexpected death of former owner Carroll Rosenbloom in 1979. Rosenbloom became the owner of the Rams when he orchestrated an unprecedented franchise trade in 1972. Rosenbloom traded the Baltimore Colts to Robert Irsay for the Rams. The Rams won an NFL record seven consecutive NFC West titles from 1973-79 under Rosenbloom's leadership.

Carl Ekern Spirit of the Game Award
Established in 1990, the award is given to the player who best exemplifies sportsmanship, ethic, and commitment to his teammates. Those traits were displayed by former Rams linebacker Carl Ekern, killed in an automobile accident in 1990. Ekern was a starter for the Rams from 1982-88 and was invited to the Pro Bowl in 1986.

Ed Block Courage Award
Ed Block was the head trainer for the Baltimore Colts for 23 years. When the Ed Block Courage Award was founded in 1978, it honored a Colts player for showing courage on and off the field. In 1984, it became a league-wide award honoring one member from each NFL team. Proceeds from the award and the Ed Block Foundation go to support and provide housing for abused children.

1968 After playoff win over Cleveland in January, team finishes regular season with 10-3-1 record, second in Coastal Division to Baltimore's 13-1 mark. 1972 In a history-making move, Baltimore Colts owner Carroll Rosenbloom trades the Baltimore franchise to Robert Irsay in exchange for the Rams. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of the late Dan Reeves. The transaction was completed and announced on July 14. Rosenbloom, the most successful owner in the NFL over the last two decades, brings with him to Los Angeles Don Klosterman, Rosenbloom's general manager in Baltimore. After five years at Cal State Fullerton, Rams move training site to Cal State Long Beach. After 6-7-1 season, all coaches are dismissed. Tom Mack and Coy Bacon are first team All-Pro choices.

1973 An observer in '72, Rosenbloom begins to make changes early in 1973, and they pay off quickly. After playoff victory over St. Louis, however, they bow to Dallas in the NFC Championship Game. The 34-8 record over the last three years is best in the NFL.

Rams set 15 club records and tie three others. Nolan Cromwell named consensus All-NFL and receives award as NFC Defensive Player of the Year. Rams enter playoffs as wild card and lose to Dallas, 34-13.

Wendell Tyler rushes for 1,074 yards and ties Elroy Hirsch's club record of 17 touchdowns in a season. Rams sell out first seven regular season games at Anaheim Stadium.

1982 NFL players' strike wipes out seven games of the regular season schedule and the Rams finish last in the NFC with a 2-7 record. QB Bert Jones, acquired in draft day trade from Baltimore, misses last 5 games with a neck injury. In his place, Vince Ferragamo throws for 509 yards vs. Chicago, second highest in league history. Following the season Malavasi is dismissed.

1983 In one of the most dramatic turnaround years in NFL history, Georgia Frontiere begins by hiring former USC Coach John Robinson in February. Revamped front office engineers a dozen off-season trades. Eric Dickerson is drafted on the first round in April. Robinson installs new offense (single back) and new defense (3-4) while Frontiere signs all players on roster. Rams go 9-7 and enter playoffs as wild card team beating Dallas in Texas, 24-17, before losing to Redskins in Washington. Dickerson breaks NFL rookie rushing record (1,808 yards), sets five Ram records and is consensus All-Pro. Cromwell, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Dickerson make Pro Bowl. Robinson named NFC Coach of the Year.

1984 Rams make playoffs for second time in as many years after finishing with 10-6 mark. Rams host first ever playoff game at Anaheim Stadium before record crowd of 67,037 but lose to New York Giants in NFC wild card game. Again, Eric Dickerson is the offensive force behind the Rams' success as he rushes for 2,105 yards, breaking O.J. Simpson's NFL record of 2,003. Jack Youngblood sets Ram record by playing in his 201st consecutive game. Quarterback Jeff Kemp replaces injured Vince Ferrangamo in Week Three and leads team to nine wins. Dickerson is named NFC Player of the Year and makes Pro Bowl along with Henry Ellard, Kent Hill and Doug Smith. Dickerson is joined by Bill Bain, Jim Collins and Henry Ellard on first team All-Pro.

1985 Rams season falls just one game short when they lose to Chicago Bears in the NFC Championship Game. The defense and special teams play prominent roles in 11-5 regular season. Rams defense stifles Minnesota on one-inch line to preserve 13-10 victory as time runs out in Week Five. Ron Brown electrifies Anaheim Stadium crowd by returning two kickoffs for touchdowns against Green Bay to tie NFL record in Week Twelve. Eric Dickerson misses first two games but returns to rush for 1,234 yards. he sets an NFL playoff record by rushing for 248 yards against Dallas in first ever playoff win (20-0) at Anaheim Stadium. Nine Rams make NFC Pro Bowl team: Ron Brown, Jim Collins, Gary Green, Dale Hatcher, LeRoy Irvin, and four offensive linemen, Dennis Harrah, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith. Collins, Irvin, Hatcher, Brown, Vince Newsome and Henry Ellard receive first team All-Pro recognition.

1986 Rams make playoffs for fourth consecutive year after posting a 10-6 regular season record. Rams acquire rookie Quarterback Jim Everett from Houston in major trade with Oilers. Everett throws three touchdown passes in debut against Patriots and starts last five games including playoff loss to Washington. Eric Dickerson rushes for over 1,000 yards for fourth consecutive season (1,821) and surpasses former Ram running back Lawrence McCutcheon as the teams all-time leading rusher with 6,968 yards in only four seasons. Defense plays important role in Rams' success, finishing fifth in total defense in the NFL, yielding 304 yards per game. Seven Rams selected to Pro Bowl - Dickerson, Carl Ekern, Jerry Gray, Dennis Harrah, LeRoy Irvin, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith. Harrah, Dickerson Slater and Irvin also garner first team All-Pro honors.

1987 Rams fail to make the playoffs for the first time in last five seasons while finishing with a 6-9 record. NFL players' strike shortens season by one game while three games are played with non-union players. Rams acquire six draft choices (three No. One's and three No. Two's over the next two years) from the Colts in blockbuster trade for Running Back Eric Dickerson. Charles White takes over for Dickerson and wins NFL rushing title by gaining 1,374 yards and is named to his first Pro Bowl as well as unanimous All-Pro. Ron Brown, Jackie Slater and Tom Newberry join White on All-Pro first team.

1988 Rams qualify for the playoffs for the fifth time in six seasons under John Robinson, who becomes the winningest coach in club history with 58 wins. Rams lose NFC Wild Card Game to Minnesota after finishing with a 10-6 record. Team features wide open offense as Jim Everett sets four Ram passing records and ties a fifth while wide receiver Henry Ellard sets a Ram record for most catches in a season with 86. Defensively, the Rams tie a club record with 56 quarterback sacks which leads the league. Rams have five of the top 47 choices in draft and select RB Gaston Green and WR Aaron Cox

Giants before losing to San Francisco in NFC Championship game. Rams' 13 wins are the most since 1978. Jim Everett becomes the first player in club history to pass for over 4,000 yards (4,310), while receivers Henry Ellard (1,382 yds.) and Flipper Anderson (1,146) are the first two receivers to gain over 1,000 yards in the same season. Anderson also sets NFL record with 336 receiving yards on 15 catches vs. New Orleans. Safety Vince Newsome tops defense with 89 tackles while Linebacker Kevin Greene registers 16.5 quarterback sacks. Jerry Gray, Kevin Greene, Tom Newberry, Jackie Slater, Doug Smith and Ellard make the Pro Bowl. Gray returns interception for a touchdown and is named the game's Most Valuable Player. Slater is named NFC Offenisve Lineman of Year for third straight season and fifth time in career. Slater, Newberry, Greene, Gary and Mike Lansford are All-Pro first team picks.

1990 Henry Ellard, (most receptions with 412 and yards with 7,037), and Jackie Slater (most games played with 209) both set Ram records as the team posts a disappointing 5-11 record. Ellard and Willie "Flipper" Anderson also become first receivers in Rams history to have consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons, a feat only two other NFL teams have accomplished. Rams spoil 49ers attempt to break NFL record of consecutive wins by beating San Francisco at Candlestick, 28-17. Jackie Slater and Jim Everett represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1991 Rams suffer through one of the most disappointing seasons in their history by finishing with a 3-13 record. The franchise loses a record 10 games in a row to finish the season. John Robinson resigns as head coach prior to the club's last regular season game. Tackle Jackie Slater becomes the first player in Ram history to play 16 seasons. Rams fail to have a player named to the NFL Pro Bowl for the first time since the game's inception in 1950. Versatile Robert Delpino earns first team All-Pro honors as receiver-back.

1992 Rams hire former head coach Chuck Knox (1973-77) as head coach, replacing John Robinson. Rams select DT Sean Gilbert, from the University of Pittsburgh with third choice in the first round. By doubling its victory total from the previous year Los Angeles finishes 6-10. Rams deal eventual Super Bowl XXVII champion Dallas only loss at home 27-23 and set club record by overcoming a 24-point deficit in 31-27 win at Tampa Bay. Kevin Greene is named to All-Pro first team.

1993 NFL and Player Association representatives agree on a new free agency system for players with 5 years or more experience. Rams name Jim Everett and Sean Gilbert as transition players, giving Los Angeles the first right of refusal once their contracts expire. Rams select RB Jerome Bettis, from the University of Notre Dame with the 10th pick in the first round and he earns rookie of the year honors after rushing for 1,429 yards (2nd in NFL) including 212 yards at New Orelans in 23-20 Rams' victory. Bettis and DT Sean Gilbert, who led team with 10.5 quarterback sacks, become first Rams since 1990 to appear in Pro Bowl. Bettis becomes only second player in team history to win Rookie of the Year honors. Both Bettis and Gilbert receive first team All-Pro accolades.

1994 Rams endure an active off-season of change in which club signs several free agents, including QB Chris Miller of Atlanta and DT Jimmie Jones of Dallas, and trades QB Jim Everett. Rams trade down in draft and have 10 choices in first six rounds and seven in first three. Auburn T Wayne Gandy is club's first choice on May 3, Rams exercise a clause in their lease with city of Anaheim that allows the club to terminate lease within 15 months. Rams become first team ever to shutout Joe Montana with 16-0 win over Kansas City at Arrowhead Stadium. Team suffers its fifth consecutive losing season after dropping final seven games. Jerome Bettis finishes with 1,025 yards and earns second Pro Bowl invitation, becoming first Ram player to do so since Jackie Slater in 1990. Chuck Knox is relieved of his coaching duties at end of season.

1995 Frontiere moves franchise to St. Louis after 49 years in Southern California. NFL owners approve team's relocation effort with 23-6-1 vote on April 12, bringing NFL football back to St. Louis after eight year absence. League owners originally block proposed move with 3-21-6 vote on March 15. Rams hire Steve Ortmayer as Vice President for Football Operations and former Oregon coach Rich Brooks as 19th head coach in team history. After signing several free agents, including LB Carlos Jenkins, CB Anthony Parker and QB Mark Rypien, Rams make Florida DE Kevin Carter their number one draft choice. Rams greet St. Louis with 4-0 record to start season. Isaac Bruce produces record-breaking year with 119 receptions for 1,781 yards, while D'Marco Farr finishes eighth in NFL with 11.5 sacks. Rams receive high praise for producing one of league's top drafts. They upgrade offense by selecting Nebraska RB Lawrence Phillips and LSU WR Eddie Kennison in first round and Michigan State QB Tony Banks in second. Team moves into state-of-the-art administration and practice facility in June. S Keith Lyle ties for NFL lead in interceptions with 9.

1997 Rams celebrate club's 60th anniversary of professional football. On January 20, Dick Vermeil is hired as head coach and President of Football Operations, replacing Rich Brooks. Vermeil replaces Steve Ortmayer with Lynn Stiles as Vice-President/Football Operations. Vermeil quickly assembles experienced staff of five former professional football head coaches, including Mike White, Bud Carson, Jim Hanifan, Frank Gansz and Dick Coury. Vermeil trades four picks with New York Jets in exchange for first pick in 1997 NFL draft. Rams select offensive tackle Orlando Pace first overall. St. Louis signs free agents K Jeff Wilkins, FB Craig Heyward and LB Michael Jones. CB Ryan McNeil leads league with 9 interceptions.

1998 Rams sign several free agents, including LB Eric Hill, WR Ricky Proehl, C/G John Flannery, DT Joe Phillips and P Rick Tuten. Defensive coordinator Bud Carson announced his retirement. 1999 Rams acquire Pro Bowl RB Marshall Faulk from Indianapolis on April 15, 1999, in exchange for second and fifth round draft choices in the 1999 NFL Draft. St. Louisan Trent Green, who attended Vianney High, highlighted an aggressive off-season pursuit of veteran free agents. In his first season as a regular quarterback in 1998 at Washington, Green posted a 6-3 record in the final nine games. The Rams also signed G Adam Timmerman of Green Bay, S Devin Bush of Atlanta, and LB Todd Collins of New England. The Rams drafted Torry Holt, a wide receiver from North Carolina State University, in the first round. Holt made 88 receptions for 1,604 yards and 11 touchdowns during his senior season at N.C. State. Rams returned to Western Illinois University in Macomb for training camp for the fourth year.

The Rams inaugurated play in the Trans World Dome against the Carolina Panthers November 12, 1995.

ST. LOUIS RAMS FOUNDATION

Upon the Rams arrival in 1995, an extensive outreach program in the St. Louis region was initiated, establishing strong ties with thousands of organizations in the bi-state area. To create productive relationships with these organizations, the St. Louis Rams Foundation was formally established in June 1997. As a separate nonprofit branch of the Rams community outreach program, the Rams and the Rams Foundation continue to commit to a positive, progressive influence on the youth of the greater St. Louis area through partnerships.

Rams' owners Georgia Frontiere and Stan Kroenke have committed $1 million over a four year period to serve as cash grants for organizations and programs promising exciting and beneficial opportunities for the youth of the St. Louis region. "One of the goals of the Rams and my personal goal has always been the education and well-being of all our children," said Mrs. Frontiere. "Through our Foundation and continued community involvement, we strive to provide opportunities for youth so they may make their dreams a reality. Youth are our future and we are so proud to support some outstanding organizations that make a difference."

Through this pledge and the dedication of the organization, the St. Louis Rams Foundation has awarded more than half a million dollars to area organizations since its inception. Partnerships are developed with organizations focusing primarily on education/literacy, health and recreation for youth.

Grant applications are reviewed biannually with deadlines of January 1 and July 1. Creative approaches that include a combination of financial and non-financial assistance are welcomed. For more information on the St. Louis Rams Foundation and/or for an application, call the Rams Foundation at 314/516-8788 or visit the Rams website at www.stlouisrams.com.
